

Check list for abstracts

An abstract is excluded if one or several criteria are met:

The investigated condition does not meet the criteria

- The study is focused on another outcome measure than the symptoms of depression or symptoms of burn that are specified in the project plan

Other focus than occupational exposure and symptoms or depression/burnout

- The study is only focused on treatment
- The study is only focused on rehabilitation
- The study is only focused on sick leave
- The study is only focused on describing a disease or a symptom (e.g. diagnostics or prevalence)
- The study is only focused on guidelines scales, a test or a method (e.g. validity or reliability)

Other focus than the present review

- Description on how symptoms of depression/burnout effects the work ability
- The study is only focused on describing the effects of an intervention
- Health economy, e.g. cost of disease
- The study is only focused on accidents due to an acute event

Population

- The study is only focused on children or teenagers
- The study is only focused on students
- The study is only focused on retired persons
- The study is only focused on work environments in other geographical areas than Europa, North Amerika or Australia/New Zealand
- The study is only focused on other populations than working persons, e.g. un-employed
- The study is has less than 100 exposed participants

Study design

- Case report
- Animal study

Publication type

- Conference proceeding
- letters and editorials